Community Invited to Enjoy Music for All

Medina, Ohio, September 4, 2018 – The Medina County Board of Developmental Disabilities invites families to enjoy “Music for All” on Saturday, September 15 at 6:00 pm at the Medina County Achievement Center (4691 Windfall Road, Medina). This is a free community concert that mixes classical music with familiar tunes for a fun-filled family friendly event.

The “Music for All” concert is presented by well-established professional musicians who come together to reach out to new audiences through easily accessible community concerts. This allows the audience to experience music through innovative and engaging programs that are specifically designed to appeal to audiences which include children, teens and adults. Musicians Rebecca Redd, from the Oberlin Community Music School, Abigail Foster, from Celebration Strings, and Patrick Miller, of the Akron Symphony will perform a wide range of musical selections. The program will include everything from variations of Twinkle, Twinkle Little Star to classical pieces by Schubert and even a selection of fiddle music.

This event is also designed with specific attention to providing a supportive experience for people with developmental disabilities. “This is a great opportunity for our community to come together to relax and enjoy some wonderful music from some very talented musicians. It is also a great opportunity for our agency to help individuals with disabilities and their families to experience a concert in an environment that promotes their success, not only at this event but at any future community events they may want to attend,” said Jon Bluebond, MCBDD Superintendent. “We are happy to be able to work with our community partner Harvest Presbyterian Church to provide this program for our entire community.”

Families are invited to bring a blanket and a picnic dinner to enjoy this outdoor concert. In case of any weather related concerns, the concert will be moved inside the Achievement Center. For more information or updates, visit www.mcbdd.org or call 330-725-7751.
