

Donor Scholarship

Educate • Advocate • Serve

The field of developmental disabilities is always looking to expand and improve its workforce. Finding and recruiting trained professionals for positions that range anywhere from administrators and therapists, to educators and direct care workers is a daily priority.

That is why MCBDD is proud to offer this scholarship to students in our community. Administered by the Medina County Board of Developmental Disabilities' Donated Funds Committee, it was founded to recognize and support young persons who are pursuing a career which serves individuals with developmental disabilities. Awards are granted without regard to race, color, creed, religion, gender, disability or national origin.

This scholarship encourages students to make an impact through public service to improve the lives of hundreds of Medina County citizens with developmental disabilities. By supporting quality education, it promotes advocacy, education and training of future generations of professionals.
