Some people have challenges with talking and may need a device to help them tell others what they are thinking. Just as when someone is using a foreign language, these conversation take practice. The Chatter Box is an informal gathering of people that encourages folks to come together and talk about stuff that is important to them...things like music, friends, movies or jokes.

ANYONE IS WELCOME TO ATTEND

Individuals, family members and providers can learn how to talk using technology.
