

Medina County Board of Developmental Disabilities

DONOR SCHOLARSHIP

The Medina County Board of Developmental Disabilities is proud to offer this scholarship to students in the community. Administered by the Medina County Board of Developmental Disabilities Donated Funds Committee, it was founded to recognize and encourage young persons who are pursuing a career which serves individuals with developmental disabilities. Awards are granted without regard to race, color, creed, religion, gender, disability or national origin.

ELIGIBILITY

Applicants must be current Medina County high school senior.

Applicants must be accepted into an accredited training program in a field providing services to individuals with developmental disabilities (i.e. special education, physical therapy, behavioral sciences, speech therapy, etc.).

Applicants must demonstrate involvement in one or more of the following activities:

- volunteer activities which may have included or provided services to individuals with disabilities
- job shadowing Medina County Board of DD staff
- internships or work study with developmental disability programs
- Special Olympics
- involvement in community agencies/groups which serve individuals with disabilities

APPLICATION

Interested students must complete a Medina County Board of Developmental Disabilities Donor Scholarship application form and return along with any letters of recommendation. Applicants are responsible for gathering and submitting all necessary information. Applications are evaluated on all information supplied; therefore answer all questions as completely as possible.

Completed application and supporting documents must be submitted to the Medina County Board of Developmental Disabilities Administration Office on or before Friday, March 26, 2021 at 4:00 pm.

CRITERIA

Awards will be based on information as provided on the Medina County Board of Developmental Disabilities Donor Scholarship application form. Consideration will also be given to the student's total involvement in programs and activities sponsored by the Medina County Board of Developmental Disabilities.

AWARDS

The Medina County Board of Developmental Disabilities Donor Scholarship will award one (1) $1,500.00 scholarship this year. The Scholarship is awarded in May of each year. Scholarship monies will be issued upon verification of enrollment in an accredited training program in a field providing services to individuals with developmental disabilities. The Medina County Board of DD Donated Funds Committee reserves the right to determine criteria for awarding all funds.

The decision of the Donated Funds Committee is final.
