

- Health Services Message -

JANUARY IS National Slavery & Human Trafficking Prevention Month

January is National Slavery & Human Trafficking Prevention Month. Whether people want to believe that this type of thing is happening in their own back yard or not, facts prove that it is. If you or someone you know needs help or if you think someone is in immediate danger, call 911.

Resources:

General Information on human trafficking

<https://www.ohioattorneygeneral.gov/Individuals-and-Families/Victims/Human-Trafficking/Did-you-know>

Awareness Publications

- Human trafficking: An online threat
- Parent resource guide: Apps to watch
- Parent resource guide: Protecting kids when they go online
- Things you can do right now to help fight human trafficking
- Standards of Service for Trafficked Persons

Report Human Trafficking

<https://www.ohioattorneygeneral.gov/Individuals-and-Families/Victims/Human-Trafficking/Report-human-trafficking>

Hope & Healing Survivor Resource Center

<https://hopeandhealingresources.org/>

The Children's Center of Medina County

<https://medinacountychildrenscenter.org/anti-human-trafficking/>

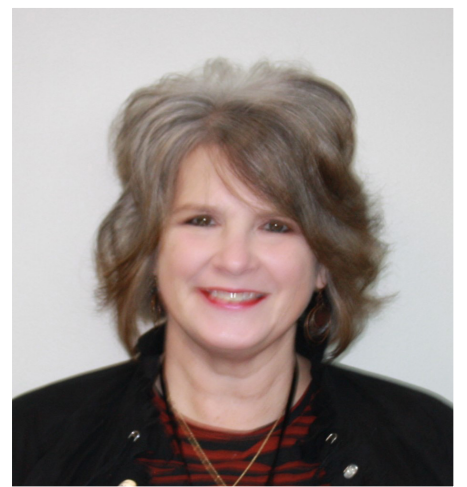

Rape Crisis Center

<https://hopeandhealingresources.org/rape-crisis-center/>

Battered Women's Shelter

<https://hopeandhealingresources.org/battered-womens-shelter/>

If you have any questions or are in need of resources, please reach out to Pam Wheeler, Health Services Coordinator, at 330-725-7751 ext. 234 or pwheeler@mcbdd.org.

Pam Wheeler,
Health Services Coordinator