Join the MCBDD and Kelly Clark, Community Training Specialist at the Autism Society of Greater Akron, for a training on safety in the home and community for individuals who are at risk for wandering/eloping. Attendees will learn important information and strategies that they can implement to help keep a loved one with a disability safe. All attendees will be provided with a safety kit to take home with strategies and tools to help prevent wandering.

ANYONE IS WELCOME TO ATTEND

For questions or to register by phone, call Nicole Richter, MCBDD Training Specialist, at 330-725-7751 x306 or email nrichter@mcbdd.org.
